MAP TO THE MOON stalked three wide early on, edged up leaving the half then dropped inside, bid along the rail to take over leaving the five sixteenths, shook clear under a hustling ride around the final turn then held firm while kept to task. FEEL THE BOLT prompted the pace two wide, moved alongside the leader approaching the half, gained the advantage into the backstretch, was hooked from her inside past the three eighths, gave hard chase after ceding the lead and kept on with good effort to be well clear of the rest. BEASTORBURDEN , well placed stalking inside, angled out under a hearty ride near the three eighths, pursued the top pair but failed to make any inroads through the final quarter mile. LIBERATION DAY , four deep into the first turn, remained four wide past the wire the first time, shifted inside while under pressure past the half mile pole and tired. SALLY GIRL was sent clear early, set the pace towards the inner rail, failed to deny an outer threat leaving the half mile pole then faltered.
