Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

GUCCI MAN tracked along the inside, loomed a danger while awaiting racing room behind the leader at the five sixteenths pole, slipped through to bid at the quarter pole, vied with an outer co-bidder into upper stretch then drove clear. FASTER pursued from midpack in the three path, ranged up in the five path around the far turn, bid at the quarter pole, vied with an inner foe into upper stretch but proved no match for that one shortly after. TIVERTON (GB) lacked speed in the three path, cut the gap on the main group into the far turn, advanced inside of rivals entering the lane to claim show in upper stretch then stayed on while hanging on his left lead. NEOKING broke slowly, trailed in the two path, moved up inside of foes at the furlong grounds then stayed on willingly. BOYS CODE lacked speed along the inside, then in the three to five path into the lane and failed to menace. I LUCKED OUT stalked in range outside of the top pair around both turns, but got outkicked between bidders turning for home then faded. KING OF KENTUCKY vied with an outer rival early on, led in the two path around the far turn, got headed between bidders entering the lane then faltered. ODORICO vied two wide, chased between horses around the far turn then weakened.
