Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

KARLWITHANARL tracked from the three path, then four wide and between horses down the backstretch, chased the leader around the far turn, ran on to bid leaving the sixteenth pole then edged past late. GOLD FOOT vied along the inside, switched out to rebid two wide and between rivals entering the backstretch, inched clear leaving the five sixteenths pole, held sway into midstretch, but got collared by an outer bidder passing teh sixteenth pole and could not last. TRES SOLES raced off of the pace in the four to two path, built momentum in the four to five path nearing the lane then stayed on to claim show in midstretch then held show from an inner challenger. LAST CHANCE LUIS took back early on, lacked speed near the inside, chased in the three to four path into the final furlong, stayed on to attempt an inside bid for show but was kept at bay. EXTRAVAGANT PRINCE tracked four to five wide, chased in the four path into the lane then yielded. SHANKAR stalked three wide, vied down the backstretch then faded between horses leaving the five sixteenths pole. BOTTLES vied two wide, then along the inside into the backstretch, sparred with an otuer pair thereafter then faded at the five sixteenths pole.
