Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

AZOI was brushed between horses at the start, trailed in the three to five path into the backstretch, inched closer around the far turn, rallied to bid outside of rivals at the furlong grounds then drove clear in the final sixteenth. GEWURZTRAMINER was brushed between foes leaving the gate, stalked a path from the inside, bid two wide and between horses into the lane, led into the final furlong but got outkicked by an outer bidder at the sixteenth pole. SWISS SLANG pursued from midpack in the three path, chased in the two path in upper stretch, ran on along the inside and edged show. MY ROMEO LIMA laid off of the pace in the five path, progressed rounding the far turn to bid tucking three wide entering the lane, but flattened out while getting outkicked in midstretch then yielded. SAINT IN THE CITY brushed with an outer foe at the start, vied for the lead with an outer rival while near the inside, led turning for home, got headed by an outer pair of bidders entering the lane then faded. QUOKKA tracked in the four path, chased between horses around the far turn, got shuffled leaving the five sixteenths pole then gave way. BE HERE settled near the inside, spun to the four path into upper stretch and failed to factor. GAGLIARDI brushed with an inner foe at the start, vied for the lead with an inner foe while taking the four to three path, then weakened between horses approaching the quarter pole.
