SARK disputed the pace racing three-wide, took the lead from WOODROW CALL nearing the eighth pole and drew clear late. IM GUNNA was reserved off the pace, rallied five-wide into the stretch and finished strongly. BOOMING BERNARDO was umped at the start when COLONEK BROCK came in then was allowed to settle, came two-wide into the stretch and finished in a mild rally. HUGH GLASS was bumped hard at the start by COLONEL BROCK and pinched back then was allowed to settle, rallied two-wide into the stretch, steaddied nearing the eighth pole lacking room, angled further out and finished willingly. WOODROW CALL vied for the early lead with URBAN JUSTICE and SARK, continued to dispute the issue to the eighth pole and weakened. COLONEL BROCK unseated his rider during the loading and ran off into the chute causing a brief delay then was returned to the gate, broke in to bump HUGH GLASS then drifted out, rushed up to be prominent while three-wide on the turn and tired during the drive. URBAN JUSTICE vied for the lead with WOODROW CALL for three furlongs and gave way. BYE BYE RETIREMENT was unhurried while racing three-wide on the turn, came four-wide into the stretch and was not a factor.
