HONOR THE CAT stalked the pace early on, then dueled for the lead briefly around the far turn with WEST IS WEST, then rallied down the lane and drew away from the field to win easily. HUNTING FOR GOLD got off a touch slow, but raced up quickly and was mid field early on, then closed well from the outside, to get up for second. KING OF THE DISCO was near the back in the early goings, racing along the outside and offered a bid around the turn to get up for show. WARREN'S C J got bumped around from the inside, going around the first turn, losing action, but ran up to be mid pack down the backstretch, only to flatten out down the lane. WEST IS WEST pressed the pace early, then gained command down the backstretch, dueling briefly around the far turn but faded in the stretch. SEB N' SAM gained a brief lead early on, racing on the inside but gave way down the lane. COME HOME got in tight around the first turn, almost unseating the rider, while being steadied and bumping the horse on the outside, never becoming a threat. Following the race, the rider of COME HOME made an objection against the rider of SEB N' SAM, and after reviewing the films, the objection was disallowed.
