Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

REAGAN'S FLAME had the inside path while in midpack down the backside, could see the field unfazed still under a patient ride at the three furlong pole with rivals beginning to make a move, began to reach for more ground shifting out at the quarter pole, moved to the six path outside foes having a clear lane for the drive and with a strong rally in the final furlong, powered past for the win in deep stretch. LITHE SPIRIT settled outside the eventual winner in mid-division down the back straightaway, uncorked a rally circling three wide at the three eighths marker, had a full head of steam by the quarter pole swooping four wide around horses, briefly seized command at the furlong marker but could not find more to fend off the winner outside in the final seventy yards. QUADRUPLE (GB) bobbled slightly trailing after the break, improved smartly gaining inside position on the rail by the half nestled in midfield, sat behind the contesting duo on the rail waiting for the cue in midturn, lacked running room two wide behind the tiring leaders at the head of the lane, shifted out getting clear run three wide at the furlong pole and finished up willingly to be a non threatening third. MS. BUCCHERO pulled the rider to the lead by mid-backstretch on the fence setting the pace, maintained a slim advantage early on the turn, had company outside when collared by the quarter pole, did not switch leads through the drive but did fight it out inside rivals nonetheless and held on for a minor placing at the finish. AMERICAN WOMEN broke out on the start, travelled three deep outside two others being part of the early pace, moved up confidently outside to take control getting a head in front on the outside by the quarter pole, had the two path clinging up top between foes with a furlong still remaining but tired in the final furlong. BRINDI (IRE) was in the mix in the beginning between horses, came under a busy ride but could not keep up to rivals on either side retreating midway on the turn and had little left for the drive wilting in upper stretch.
