ROSIEPOSIE vied between rivals leaving the gate, shook loose from challengers by the half mile marker, rolled along unopposed through the turn, continued to lead by a good margin on the rail turning for home, did not switch leads on the fence down the lane to the wire and just lasted at the finish line for the victory. CHARGETHATMOUNTAIN pressed the issue on the rail in the beginning, tracked the lone speed while having the fence inside another throughout the turn, moved out to the four path in range of the winner at the head of the lane, grinded away determinedly edging up outside down the stretch but just came up a stride or two shy at the finish line unable to surge enough to get to the winner in time. LA BELVA had a stalking role behind the trio that were engaged up front in the early going, shared the rear inside another while having a half still remaining, took the short way around the bend but made little progression but showed good late energy to win the show award inside, albeit a distant third at the wire. ROOKIE COURT prompted the early pace outside three deep, took to a tracking trip outside at the half mile pole with the pacesetter shaking clear, kept pace on the outside still in range of the leader through the oval, shifted to the four path clinging onto the third place share in upper stretch with rivals on both sides bearing down but could not find more late and was outkicked inside in the final sixteenth to settle on the fringes instead. HER OBSESSION hopped up on the break seeing the field, co-trailed on the outside at the half, offered a mild run three wide outside of runners from the five-sixteenths pole until the quarter marker closing the gap on horses, swung out widest in the sixth path at the top of the lane in the conversation outside for third place share but had little left for the drive due to the compromised start and wilted by the furlong pole. STEWARD'S INQUIRY REGARDING THE BREAK..... WAS DEEMED THAT #5 HER OBSESSION DID RECEIVE A FAIR START
