Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BRAVO KATE assumed command loping along setting a soft early pace, remained on the front end loose still setting a tepid pace down the backside, had a narrow advantage with the field bunching up at the quarter poll dictating an even but pedestrian tempo on the far turn and under a well rationed out ride just had enough to stave off the late closer nearing the finish line outside for the wire to wire tally. TALENT SHOW tossed her head slightly on the break, was in tight on the rail behind runners midway around the first of two turns, sat at the back of the pack well in range of the compact group along the back straight, was looking for a seam two to three wide on the second bend with a quarter mile to run, was stymied in upper stretch lacking running room, finally got clear run shifting out three wide at the sixteenth pole and surged in the very late going but just missed getting to the winner outside at the finish line. PICKFORD SWEET was tucked in on the rail behind the leader in the beginning, kept a close eye on the frontrunner inside another along the back straightaway, sat behind the engaged duo around the last turn at the quarter pole, took closer order skimming the fence turning for home but was outkicked by the front pair in the late going settling for the show money at the wire. TWISTING PISTONS broke out on the start, had an outside tracking position for the first half of this route race, moved in to battle for the front end outside the pacesetter at the three eighths marker, duelled outside in the three path in upper stretch but evened out in the final furlong to settle on the fringes. PURRFECT GIRL settled between horses close to the back of the pack, was under a snug hold status unchanged down the backside, was nudged on at the quarter pole moving closer taking aim on the embattled duo for wide straightening out for the stretch run but failed to fire in the later stages. THAT GIRL ARTEMUS was pushed out by the inside foe at the start, travelled four wide near the rear on the first turn, improved going three deep pulling the rider closer along the backside, was scrubbed on at the five sixteenths pole three wide on the last turn in mid-pack making little progress outside of rivals, swung out widest in the five path for the drive but had no finish to give in the final furlong.
