Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BRACHETTO tucked in last but one settling inside into the first turn, was unhurried up the backstretch then made a swift inside move on the far turn, angled out in mid-stretch with aim on the leader, gained steadily to get up late. MAGICAL FACTOR was prominent early between foes dropping back and tucking in to track the leading pair inside, was taken hold near the three-eighths awaiting room, tipped out soon after and moved to bid three wide coming past the quarter pole, drifted out a bit into the stretch then back inwards in mid-stretch with the lead and moving clear, was worn down late. CASSON was forwardly-positioned early, moved to the lead inside a foe entering the first turn and moving out off the fence, dictated terms shadowed by that rival, edged clear near the five-sixteenths, was overtaken shortly after. YUKON STRIKER broke a half-step slowly, was unhurried outside at the rear early, advanced outside foes up the backstretch and on the far turn four to five wide, ran on but needed more late. YOSHII tucked in behind the leaders stalking two to three wide early, advanced mildly three to four deep between foes on the far turn, failed to rally. FIRE AND WINE moved forward outside to challenge for the early lead, was three wide on the first turn now pressing the leader, gave way on the far turn and faded.
