UNHEARD had an outside stalking role sharing the rear position at the half, started to reach for more ground in midturn outside foes, angled out in full stride four wide turning for home and under a well-timed stretch kick got up a couple of jumps before the wire for the win. SUIGU BELLE had a slim advantage on the inside up front along the backside, relinquished the lead dueling inside at the quarter pole, determinedly came back on the edge away up front once more at the furlong pole disposing off the early speed rival but could not find more in the late running and was caught in the shadow of the wire outside by the late charging winner. DANCETOTHERHYTHM had a good spot isolated watching the contesting duo at the seven sixteenths pole, was one paced chasing the embattled pair around the bend, shifted just off the fence turning for home and ran on willingly up the rail in the final furlong to be a clear third at the wire. PRETTY GOOD JOKE was hard held co-trailing the small field on the fence by the half, lagged behind the group around the bend, shifted out three wide in upper stretch and managed to pass a leg weary rival in deep stretch. GO GEMMA prompted the pace on the outside down the back straight, moved in battling outside for the lead around the bend, poked her head in front briefly at the quarter pole, gave way up top to the other speed rival inside by the furlong pole having little left and wilted between horses in deep stretch.
