Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

LOVEUMISSUMEANIT had a good spot rating kindly on the fence in tandem with another while watching the engaged duo up top, continued to be poised waiting for the cue to go on the far turn at the quarter pole, shaved the corner making a bid at the top of the lane, darted through when the opening press ted itself coming up to the sixteenth po,e seizing control and won going away impressively at the finish line. ZISISIT (IRE) had a hustling ride out of the gate prompting the leader on the outside, dropped back just a touch shadowing the pacesetter at the half, inched up two wide pressing the issue again on the second turn, had the three path in the hunt outside two others in mid-stretch but was no match for the winner who was pulling away at the sixteenth pole but did fight on late to win the runners up share. COLLECT DATTT used the inside post position to have the lead slightly heading into the first turn, edged clear on the rail at the half, moved well up top while pressured outside at the quarter pole, had the two path straightened out with rivals bearing down by the furlong pole on both sides, offered little resistance by the sixteenth marker when the winner burst for the lead inside and faded slightly in deep stretch getting nabbed outside for the p,ace award. O WOW was allowed to settle into stride trailing the field on the initial bend, still remained at the tail end through the backstretch, started to reach for more ground two wide on the last bend, gathered more momentum swinging out widest in the five path turning for home and found her best stride late closing in for a minor share while involved outside in a three way finish for the place share at the wire. MADAM GWEN settled on the fence close to the back end, had no change inside down the back straightaway, saved ground on the last bend but could not gain and failed to fire inside runners just off the fence in the stretch drive. NIKITA'S GEM was on the outside of another who happened to be the eventual winner in the second flight watching the front duo throughout, shifted out to the four path in with a chance turning for home but wilted between horses in the last sixteenth of a mile. FOXY DIVA settled near the rear paired up with an inside rival for the first half of this two turn event, came under a ride but made little headway around the far turn and could not factor having the four path in the stretch running.
