Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

HEMLO GOLD loped along with his head quite low relaxed following the pacesetter early on, moved closer going outside down the backstretch, dueled for the lead at the three eighths pole, shook loose taking over control by the quarter pole and in the two-path kept to the task through the drive to hold safe from a closing in rival for the win at the wire. STRATUS broke out at the start, had the rail position watching the lead two rivals on the first bend as well as through the back straightaway, stayed inside keeping pace through the far turn, rallied when switching outside five wide in upper stretch and closed in steadily outside the winner in the final furlong but could not get there in time. PEJA DU was bumped by the inside rival on the break, stayed in touch with the front duo outside another for the first half of this two-turn event, closed in when under a hustling ride three wide at the quarter pole, looked to be the main threat outside at the top of the stretch but stalled at the sixteenth pole holding for the show award. C MY MEISTER hesitated at the start trailing the field, continued to find his feet lagging behind others down the backside, started to come with a run circling two runners three wide at the quarter pole, shifted out widest in the six path turning for home and had a good, sustained rally through the stretch to settle on the fringes. NINJA STAR had trouble negotiating the first of two turns going five wide, sat isolated in midfield midway along the backstretch, came under a vigorous ride at the five sixteenths pole going in the wrong direction on the final turn and could not factor three wide down the lane. AMERICAN DECISION cleared the field crossing over from the outer post having the lead setting a brisk pace on the rail around the initial bend, continued up top but was hounded outside by the eventual winner at the half, could not keep up giving way on the front end by the quarter pole and yielded on the fence to outside rivals staying on the wrong lead through the stretch drive.

CORNWALL had only one runner beaten in the early stages, was asked for more at the three eighths pole offering no response, dropped back to last two wide with a quarter mile from the finish line and came up empty having little in the stretch drive.
