Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

YACHT BOY was eager inside when entering the backstretch, settled in mid-pack being reined back on the rail under a snug hold at the half, waited behind the engaged trio taking the short way around turn, had horses looking for a seam skimming the fence in upper stretch, darted through inside at the sixteenth pole and won drawing off at the wire. BANKINGONAMIRACLE veered in on the start, was loose on the lead moving comfortably at the half, was nudged along having a diminishing advantage through the bend, edged away still in hand just off the rail at the top of the lane but could not find more in the late running to fend off the winner inside in deep stretch. NEXT PITCH was jostled between horses on the start, settled into stride outside foes in mid-division down the back straight, rallied smartly swooping around horses three wide on the turn to threaten up top four wide exiting the turn, switched leads at the sixteenth pole finding a little bit extra and was gaining late but just missed outside for the place share at the finish line. EL COHETE was brushed between rivals on the break to trail the group in the beginning, improved slightly by the half, was in range relegated back to the rear on the turn at the quarter pole, shifted out to the four path for the drive to the wire and finished up willingly between runners in the last eighth mile to garner a minor share while not inching up at the wire to be not that far off for the place share as well. TUTTI CONTENTI stalked four deep near the rear, trailed the field outside with a half mile to run, offered a brief surge circling three wide at the midpoint of the turn to swing out widest in the five path turning for home but could not continue the sustained rally and stalled outside horses in the final furlong. PAINTTHETOWNSILVER improved in the three path between rivals under a right hold down the backside, pulled the rider closer to track the pacesetter outside at the half, chased through the turn, was roused with rivals on either side but was going the wrong way by the quarter pole and emptied three wide straightening out for the drive.
