Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

CANDID CANDACE was unhurried stalking ahead of only the poor starter down the backside straight, began to reach for more ground outside smartly by midturn, swooped around runners four wide coming with a powerful rally at the quarter pole, was in full flight in the six path taking control in mid-stretch and was kept to the task late to hold safe for the win at the wire outside. MCGILL had the inside position watching the embattled three down the backside, wait for the cue to go creeping closer to the front trio at the quarter pole, was looking for a seam behind the leader two wide turning for home, darted inside to the rail nearing the eight pole and chased the winner home on the inside to be a clear second at the wire. ENCHANTED FOREST travelled on the fence close to the back in the early going, improved slightly running just off the fence through the turn, hugged the rail closing in at the top of the lane, was checked for a stride or two having its taken away coming up to the furlong pille but never wavered and kept coming on nonetheless to be a non threatening third at the finish line. CYMBAL COURT had an outside trip tracking the contesting threesome, was scrubbed on three wide between foes creeping up on the lead trio with a quarter mile remaining, angled out in the five path in upper stretch and ran on mildly outside horses to be a fringe player in the end. FANNY M tracked the lead pair inside in the beginning, took closer order to force the issue on the fence by the half, edged away to have a narrow advantage saving ground through the bend, was clinging on scraping the paint straightening out for the drive, had no answer when a rival on either side drove past at the eighth pole and faded further with a sixteenth of a mile left to run. HOLIDAY ROSE leapt up on the break to trail the group down the backside, lagged well behind rivals on the turn, shifted out at the quarter pole catching up to a runner outside, swung out five wide gathering momentum at the top of the lane and ran on late to pass a few rivals outside in the last furlong. VANDOO dueled three deep outside two others for the front end along the backside, continued the three wide journey around the bend still in the mix up front, shifted out to the four path between foes turning for home but had little left to offer and tired in the final eighth of a mile. SECRET GIZMO settled in the middle of the pack down the backside, back pedalled between foes at the five sixteenths pole u dera ride and could not factor in the late running inside of horses. MAGIC MODIE pressed the pace inside leaving the chute, vied between rivals at the half, continued fighting up front with challengers on each side through the turn, had little left give for the stretch drive and faltered three wide between horses by the furlong marker. STEWARDS INQUIRY AND RIDERS CLAIM OF FOUL #2 ENCHANTED FIREST AGAINST #6 MCGILL COMING TO THE FURLONG MARKER RESULTED IN NO CHANGE
