Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

JAGGERSGOTAGUN had a stalking role on the fence in the beginning, could see the field by the half mile marker, began to pass foes outside at the five sixteenths pole, had a full head of steam plus a clear path six wide at the top of the stretch, picked up rivals one by one through the lane and under a well timed late move got up for the stretch run win in the shadow of the wire. PRIVATE LABEL had a good trip on the first turn drafting behind the leader on the fence, dropped back briefly between foes in the two path at the half losing positioning, liked what he saw while three wide outside another watching the dueling foursome through the turn waiting to move, shot through in the three path taking control leaving the furlong marker but could not withstand the late charge by the winner outside in deep stretch. ARISTOTLE bore out five wide in the first turn taking another foe that was outside with him, was under a snug hold tracking the pacesetter outside down the back straight, battled for the front in the two path with runners on both sides throughout the final turn, poked his head up top in the two path in upper stretch, still was clinging onto the lead inside at the furlong pole but could not quicken with the two outside closers late and faded in deep stretch to be a clear third at the wire. MOHAYMEN DIAMOND was floated out going six wide into the first turn, travelled four deep down the backside improving outside foes by the half, continued to advance four wide circling horses at the five sixteenths pole making a bid for the lead, angled out in the six path in the hunt turning for home and kept finding more and tried gamely to the wire settling for only a minor share but a solid effort regardless. MALDINI drifted out going three wide causing a chain reaction with outside rivals going into the first turn, travelled three deep keeping a close eye on the front three at the half, moved in to bid for the lead three wide between challengers at the quarter pole, stayed in the mix in the five path in upper stretch but evened out by the sixteenth pole. YORKTON'S HONOUR was brushed inside when in tight having the four path between horses heading into the first bend, settled in the three path in midfield down the backside while rivals on both sides, got shuffled back at the three-furlong pole, shifted out five wide for the stretch run and passed tiring foes in the final furlong. LONNY'S GAMBLE was pushed out five wide between horses in a stalking role heading into the first turn, settled on the fence ahead of a couple of rivals down the backside, offered a brief run when scrubbed for more on the rail with five sixteenths to go, shifted to the three path straightening out for home, could not sustain the rally and stalled at the furlong marker. GOTME GOOD was carried out six wide when tracking the leader into the first turn, continued to move forward outside to shake loose up front by the half, was swarmed by outside runners while under a drive trying to hold the lead at the quarter pole, had nothing more to give at the head of the lane and wilted on the fence by the furlong pole. CAPTIVATING NAME assumed command having the rail into the first bend, relinquished the front entering the backstretch, tracked behind leader at the half, was scrubbed on but could not maintain position heading into the second bend, saved ground while trying to keep up to others on the turn but had little left to offer just off the rail by the furlong marker. TIMES A BREEZE was unhurried trailing the field into the first turn, moved outside picking up a runner closing in comfortably down the back straight, rallied three wide around foes at the three-furlong pole, stalled by the midpoint of the last turn, was eased at the top of the stretch and left via equine ambulance.
