REMARKABLY HUMAN tracked the pacesetter on the outside around the first of two turns, rated kindly hounding the frontrunner outside down the backstretch, moved in outside through the last bend to get the advantage by the quarter marker, dueled determinedly through the lane clinging onto the lead with challengers on either side in the final furlong and prevailed at the finish line in a blanket finish for the top three placings. ARCTIC BLONDE assumed command just off the fence early on, dictated an even pace along the backside, relinquished the lead to the winner outside by the quarter pole when slowing the pace down considerably on the final bend, was resurgent on the fence fighting back in upper stretch, battled stubbornly inside to the wire but gave way grudgingly in a tight finish at the line. SERENADING KITTEN pressed the issue on the rail through the initial turn, was content drafting behind the frontrunner keeping a close eye along the backside, shifted outside starting to come with a rally at the quarter pole, loomed between foes four wide in upper stretch, drifted out in the last eighth of a mile while under left handed encouragement , still was gaining gradually outside on the embattled duo at the sixteenth pole but could not get to winner in time when being on the losing end of a three way picture for the win. DAISYCREST had a stalking role outside a runner in the third flight early on, improved outside horses down the backstretch, came under a ride edging up three wide outside foes midway on the far turn, swung out widest in the mix having the five path turning for home and finished up one paced to settle on the fringes in the end. PAT'S HOLIDAY had a good spot isolated watching the lead trio on the first turn, sat in midfield inside another while well in touch with the lead pair down the backside, kept pace with rivals taking the shortest way along the last bend but lacked a rally in the stretch, failing to fire inside rivals in the final furlong. SUNNYVILLE leapt in the air at the start to co-trail inside for the first part of this route race, offered a mild spurt passing a rival outside midway on the last turn but could not find more for the drive to the wire never factoring in the late stages. MALIBU BETTY was unhurried sharing the rear outside in the early stages, travelled three wide outside seeing the field around the final turn and could only manage to pass a weary rival outside at the top of the stretch. CHURCH AVE had a stalking trip inside others near the rear, made no movement along the fence down the backside, could not offer a rally with horses making a run outside through the running on the last turn and failed to menace inside in the stretch running.
