Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

ODENKIRK broke outwardly exchanging a bump with a rival but still came away alertly going straight to the front, set the pace just off the rail, was encouraged with hand urging passing the quarter pole, drew off while receiving some right-handed flagging from the crop in mid-stretch, held well. UNCLE DODO broke awkwardly, was bumped on both sides and bobbled at the start, settled off the pace outside racing at the back, was encouraged along past the seven-sixteenths, fanned four wide into upper stretch, kept on to get up for second without threatening the winner. VERGE moved forward inside tracking in behind the eventual winner, saved ground on the turn, tipped out at the top of the stretch, chased the winner home making no headway on that one and lost place late. UNBRIDLED FREEDOM bumped with the inside foe at the start, stalked the eventual winner from outside, was asked by the five-sixteenths but had no response.
