UNCAPTURED MOMENT was away alertly breaking inwards leaving the gate getting the early advantage, relinquished the front end to an inside rival by the five eighths pole, began to reel in the leader when roused in midturn closing in smartly by the quarter pole, vied between horses in thick of things in the four path in upper stretch, edged clear up front by the sixteenth pole and had just enough left in reserve to fend off the late surge by the runner up inside at the wire. SHESHIMAINTENANCE was inside another in midfield having the three path, took closer order getting to the fence by the half, was driven for more on the rail keeping pace with the engaged trio midway along the bend, shifted to the two path looking for a lane, darted up the fence getting clear run at the furlong pole and was surging inside right at the finish line but came up just shy of getting to the winner. VAMOS VIEJO co-trailed on the outside in the beginning, had only one runner beaten through the turn while closing the gap three wide at the quarter pole, moved to the five path for the stretch run and finished up with intent charging outside runners in the final furlong getting the nod for the show money. GRANDE SOIREE had to be checked ever so slightly leaving the gate when the outside rival was coming in, settled outside in the four path in mid-division into the backstretch, circled three wide at the three eighths pole prompting the issue outside two others by the quarter marker, loomed in the five path at the top of the stretch but could not find more in the late running and idled between horses in the final sixteenth of a mile settling on the fringes when getting pick up just before the wire for the third place share. CLASSIC DANCER was under a hustling ride inside rivals entering the backstretch to gain the front end on the rail by the five furlong marker, rambled on uncontested in the early part of the turn, had company outside at the quarter pole, shifted to the two path having a tenuous lead inside a pair of runners turning for home, surrendered the top spot to the winner by the sixteenth pole and yielded further in deep stretch losing a couple of positions late. ALWAYS A WAY was already being scrubbed on near the rear on the rail into the backstretch, could not to keep up to the pack by the half mile marker, came under a drive being a long last through the turn and lost touch with the field turning for home.
