SIR FALSTAFF had an awkward start then was allowed to find his stride having only one runner beaten in the backstretch running, moved up confidently going around foes one by one three to four wide around the bend, loomed menacingly in the four path between challengers taking the corner, sharply seized control when called upon for more at the furlong marker and won easily being geared down in deep stretch. FLYONBYE was paired up on the inside sitting in midfield in the early stages, had a good spot on the fence keeping a close eye on the contesting trio at the three furlong marker, co-trailed with an outside rival with the group bunching up at the quarter pole, angled to the three path looking for running room at the top of the stretch, had to alter course slightly to the outside getting a clear lane with a furlong still to run and finished intently surging in deep stretch to win the duel for the secondary share. LOHAN stumbled badly on the break, recovered smartly sitting in midfield outside through the backstretch, took closer order heading into the turn, moved in three wide making a bid for the lead with a couple of inside rivals at the three eighths pole, edged clear opening up briefly at the quarter marker, remained in the three path at the top of the lane having no answer when the winner stormed on past outside by the furlong marker and faded in the last sixteenth saving for the show award at the wire. NAVY STREET was void of early foot being at the rear end midway through the backstretch, shifted out beginning to reach for more ground at the five sixteenths marker, swung out widest for clear run in the five path turning for home but could only finish up evenly outside rivals capturing a minor placing in the end. NAMED FIREY had a head in front outside down the back straightaway, vied between rivals on the front end at the five sixteenths pole, gave way arguing for the top spot two wide with a quarter mile to run and had little left in reserve wilting in the two path between runners by mid-stretch. MOR JOE'S SPIRIT pressed the early pace inside down the backstretch, had a slim advantage on the fence batting with two outside foes midway around the bend, relinquished the front end by the quarter pole and faltered on the rail by the furlong marker.
