Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

VOODOO DOLL had the rail position tracking the frontrunner early on, settled nicely inside another keeping a close eye on the contesting pair around the turn, skimmed the fence with run turning for home closing by the furlong pole, angled out three wide outside rivals fighting for the lead with a sixteenth remaining and found another gear late getting his head down just at the right time at the wire for the victory in a tight photo. BRACHETTO had a poor beginning breaking a step slow then having to be taken up briefly with the outside rivals bearing in soon after the start, lagged well behind finding his stride down the backside, closed the gap smartly just off the rail on the turn by the quarter pole, looked for clear running room two wide at the top of the lane, rallied up the fence at the eighth pole, shifted out in the two path coming on in deep stretch between horses and just missed with his gutsy performance at the finish line losing a tight bob at the wire for the win. FLYONBYE was away alertly loose on the front end heading into the backstretch, had company outside pressing the pace at the half, battled inside throughout the bend, edged away on the fence from the early speed rival at the top of the lane to have a clear advantage with a furlong to go, still was holding on by a diminishing margin inside at the sixteenth pole but was no match for the top two in deep stretch and finished up a clear third at the wire. STRUCK GOLD was bumped by the outside foe on the break, had an inside stalking role down the back straight, made little movement for position around the oval but narrowed the margin on the leader outside of runners by the quarter pole, swung out widest in the five path for the drive to the wire and finished up evenly down the lane to capture a minor placing in the end. ADA CLARE had a outside stalking role down the back straight, improved at the half to be on the outside of another watching the embattled duo around the turn, shifted out four wide in the mix up top straightening out for home but failed to fire in the final furlong. MOR JOE'S SPIRIT broke inwards on the start, tracked the pacesetter three deep early on, moved in by the half mile marker to force the pace outside along the backside, dueled outside going head to head throughout the turn, gave way up top in the three path with runners on each side in upper stretch and wilted by the furlong pole having little left from his early efforts fighting on the lead.
