KAVALA settled between rivals in mid-division at the half, made little headway in the early part of the turn, started to lengthen stride with a quarter mile from home, was coming to the leader in the two path in upper stretch and powered past at the sixteenth pole taking command drawing off convincingly at the wire. ALA TURKA broke tardily at the start, improved through the backstretch to sit in midfield in hand at the half, had a sharp turn of foot moving in on the fence at the five sixteenths pole, scrapped paint pouncing to the lead straightening out for the drive but could not find more late, unable to fend off the charge by the winner in deep stretch still safely besting the rest for the second position when crossing the finish line. BRAZILIAN LEGACY traded bumps with the outside runner at the start, had the rail near the rear down the back straight, co-trailed on the inside with three eighths remaining, started to mount a rally reaching for more ground at the quarter pole and closed in belatedly having a rail rally down the lane to be a non-threatening third at the wire. GOOGLY EYES had runners on either side while keeping a close eye on the lead pair along the backside, held position while scrubbed on three wide between challengers around the oval, had a chance five wide at the top of the stretch for a piece of the prize and ran on mildly to be a fringe player at the finish. NIGHTSABER (GB) chased the pacesetter inside in the early going, got her head in front while on the fence at the half, opened up midway on the turn, relinquished the lead three wide to an inside rival in upper stretch and drifted out considerably when weakening in the final furlong. GATHER stalked close to the back three deep outside of foes, put in a mild run four wide around rivals at the five sixteenths pole, angled out six wide turning for home but lacked a finish in the stretch running. VICTORIA ELIZABETH had a good spot nestled on the rail watching the lead pair, inched up saving all the ground midway on the bend to be in the mix four wide between runners turning for home, could not find more for the late drive and faltered inside of horses at the furlong pole. CRUMLIN BEAST was away slowly seeing the field down the back straight, caught up to a rival outside at the three furlong marker, had a brief run when roused closing the gap four wide at the quarter pole, swung out widest to the seven path in upper stretch but failed to menace in the drive to the wire. SEATTLE SIGNAL broke sharp to be loose on the lead in the beginning, surrendered the front to an inside rival at the half, backed away abruptly through the field around turn to see the field at the top of the lane but did come back on late inside to catch a weary straggler at the finish line. VERI GIZMO exchanged bumps with the inside rival on the break, settled three deep watching the lead duo along the backstretch, kept pace with others while travelling four wide outside foes in midturn, had little for the stretch run and faltered in the four path in the late running.
