SHE'S GOLD broke sharp getting a head in front inside two others entering the backstretch, moved well up top controlling an even pace around the turn while pestered by an outside foe, scraped paint opening up in mid-stretch and kept finding more in the late stages being coaxed along holding comfortably for the frontrunning score. COOL TIMES was in the early mix between horses in the beginning, took off the contesting duo being reined in at the nine sixteenths marker, sat very poised under a snug hold drafting behind the frontrunner around the oval, shifted out off the leader two wide posing the only opposition at the head of the lane but just could not get by the stubborn winner through the stretch drive. LAINEY broke with the pack but quickly dropped back leaving the chute trailing the field, began to pick up the bit on the rail passing an outside runner at the quarter pole, continued to skim the fence coming on in upper stretch and finished up with intent inside horses in the final furling to be a clear but non threatening third. BULLET JOURNAL prompted the early pace three deep, hounded the pacesetter outside on the right flank throughout the bend, gave way three wide fighting for the top prize at the head of the lane and ran on mildly down the lane between horses saving for minor placing in the end. FLEURY ran in tandem with an outside rival having only one runners beaten down beaten through the backside running, took closer two wide through the turn at the quarter pole, shifted to the four path in upper stretch but could only finish up one paced outside in the final furlong losing the duel for the minors. QUALITY AMI was paired up with an inside runner sitting in the third flight down the backstretch, travelled three wide on the turn but was going in the wrong direction being passed at the quarter marker to be at the rear and while in the four path failed to menace in the stretch running.
