NOYZEE GIRL bobbled slightly at the start, settled off the pace, advanced mildly inside on the turn but had to steady in behind and inside foes near the five-sixteenths, waited before tipping out leaving the turn moving between foes into upper stretch and asked for run, bid inside a rival seventy yards out, dueled with that one late and prevailed. RIDEAU FALLS settled off the pace outside, advanced on the turn moving out five wide and was asked for run at the quarter pole, struck a co-lead near the seventy-yard marker dueling late but missed. SOUPER SPINNER moved forward inside to take the lead about the nine-sixteenths, set the pace edging just clear, was outfinished late. BUTTERFLY BILLIE broke a bit awkwardly and lacked early speed trailing inside, swung nine wide at the top of the stretch and showed some late effort outside. ALMASTY'S LUST chased in behind, made a swift move between foes four wide at the three-eighths getting within range of the leader and put to urging coming to the quarter pole, could not sustain the effort. SEEKING MAGIC exchanged a light bump at the start, pressed from outside early, chased five wide on the turn, was ridden by the quarter pole, weakened in the stretch. HOPE SHE FIRES briefly vied between runners for the early lead, dropped back three wide on the turn, faded. HENNA GAL broke outwardly, briefly vied between foes for the early lead, dropped back chasing in behind near but off the inside, faded in the stretch. YA NO exchanged a light bump at the start, set the early pace from between foes, dropped back and faded.
