ELGIN PARK had a great set up isolated on the outside behind the embattled duo, cruised up three wide around the turn making a bid for the front end outside the pacesetter at the quarter pole, had the two path getting a slight advantage up top at the top of the lane, duelled determinedly with an unyielding frontrunner through the final furlong and just got the better of that one inching away in the late stages for the hard fought stretch win. RED PHARAOH had the lead on the rail down the back straightaway, rolled along taking the shortest way around the turn putting away the early outside speed rival by the five sixteenths pole, braced for the challenge outside by the eventual winner at the quarter pole being collared by that one at the top of the stretch, battled on valiantly inside through the entire stretch drive but could not match strides giving away for the winners share in the final seventy yards. ASK IN MY NAME was off slowly on the fence ahead of only a couple of rivals running down the backside, saved oak the ground around the turn narrowing the margin at the quarter pole, shifted out to the three path entering the stretch, darted inwards between horses angling to the tail leaving the furlong marker and was full of run charging home in the late going easily capturing third money with not that far off the front pair at the wire. FORESTER'S FORTUNE improved along the fence through the backstretch sitting in mid-division by the half, inched up two wide around the oval by the quarter pole, shifted to the four path taking the corner and finished up mildly in the final furlong capturing a minor placing. BOOTSONTHEGROUND broke with the pack but regressed three deep in the backstretch running to be near the rear outside horses by the half, was under a hard ride three wide at the midpoint through the turn beginning to pickup the bit at the quarter pole, angled out to the five path at the head of the lane and finished up with good late energy outside runners closing in smartly in the final sixteenth of a mile. GRANDE SOIREE was on the outside of another watching the lead three rivals midway down the backstretch, ranged closer travelling three to four circling runners on the bend, had aim on the contesting duo coming into the stretch but tired shortening stride in the final furlong losing a few positions in the late going. INDY ONE had ani side tracking role keeping tabs on the lead trio with a half mile remaining, kept pace with the leader on the rail in the turn running, scraped paint turning for home but failed to fire in the final eighth of a mile. JAGGERSGOTAGUN tossed his head buckling to the inside having to be taken a hold of on the start trailing while being roused to stay in contact down the backside, passed an inside runner getting out of last midway around the bend, was allowed to drift out to the sevenpath in upper stretch and could only manage to pass one more challenger in the final furlong. EL ALACRAN pressed the pace outside along the backstretch, travelled two wide but was retreating between horses at the five sixteenths pole, remained in the two path straightening out for home but faltered at the furlong pole. GASLIGHT DANCER had only a troubled starter beaten along the backstretch with a half mile to go, was roused for more on the rail but was relegated to last by midturn, shifted to the two path for the drive to the finish line but could not factor in the stretch running.
