Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MY SWAGG DADDY LOU was allowed to settle into a rhythm finding his stride near the rear down the backside, started to pick up the bit coming with a sharp rally shifting out splitting runners two wide at the quarter pole, angled to the five path in full flight entering the stretch and stormed home in the final eighth of a mile under a busy ride to get up just in time for the come from behind win. POCKET SPEED moved well in hand loose on the engine in the fence along the backstretch, rolled along unchallenged around the oval, slimmed the fence well in control moving strongly at the top of the lane, kept on going to the finish line but could not withstand the powerful late charge by the winner outside a few jumps before the wire. MR. PERFECT tracked the loose leader on the rail, chased the frontrunner in earnest throughout the turn, angled just outside having the two path turning for home and determinedly kept on fighting but could no match strides with the front two runners in the final furlong but still finished up determinedly to be a clear third in the end. SPEIGHTS WILL was on the inside of another challenger sitting in mid-division midway along the backside, edged up inside foes being coaxed for more on the rail at the quarter pole, angled to the two path for the drive to the wire and finished up evenly with horses on either side lasting at the wire from the late closing outside foe for a minor placing. PARADISE PERFECT was unhurried trailing the field along the back straightaway, travelled two to three wide lagging behind the pack around the turn, swung out widest in the seven path in upper stretch and showed some late energy outside in the final furlong just missing at the wire closing in for a piece of the prize. EUBANK had an outside tracking position in tandem with another down the backside and throughout the bend, shifted to the three path faltering between runners by mid-stretch and was wrapped up by the rider in the late going. CHANCHITO ran as a pair with an inside rival sitting in midfield down the backside, could not keep up to others regressing two wide on the turn by the quarter pole, shifted to the three path for the drive but came up empty by upper stretch.
