GLORIOUS REVENGE wpsettled on the outside in the middle of the pack,travelled two wide on the turn coming with a run by the five sixteenths pole, swung out widest in the five path looming a menace presence at the top of the stretch and under a busy ride seized control outside from the early duelling lead pair at the sixteenth poke and had to be kept to the task to the very end fending off the late charge by the runner up inside in deep stretch. DOWNTOWN RO was allowed to settle into stride co-trailing on the outside down the backstretch well within striking distance with a half mike still to go, began to reach for more ground being coaxed three wide at the quarter pole, moved from the three path darting to the rail charging home at the furling marker and closed in sharply in deep stretch but could not get to the winner in time. WINE MONEY took contact from the outside rival on the break, had the rail being a joint last at the half mile marker, was in tight behind a tiring foe having to be wrangled back briefly at the quarter pole, shifted out for clear run in the five path turning for home and showed good late energy closing in belatedly outside getting the nod from two inside rivals at the wire for the show money. ROYAL FONZ broke inwards on the start, was hustled on the rail midway through the backside darting inside runners getting a head in front by the seven sixteenths marker, maintained a slim advantage on the fence around the bend, shifted to the two path surrendering the lead to the outside speed rival in upper stretch and faded between horses with a sixteenth still to run. TEAM ALMASTY broke alertly getting the early advantage outside, relinquished the top spot to an inside runner intent for the front at the seven sixteenths marker, battled outside with that foe throughout the turn, had the four path between horses getting a head in front for a brief moment staying in the wring lead at the furlong marker, could not find more in the late running and weakened with rivals on either side at the sixteenth pole. HARD RELOAD pressed the pace inside leaving the gate, had a good spot isolated behind the engaged lead duo heading into the oval, regressed two wide inside of runners on the turn at the quarter pole and little to offer in the drive folding on the fence at the furlong marker.
