Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

GALLEY HEAD was forwardly placed watching the front two rivals while sitting on the outside, crept up two wide around the turn moving to the leader by the quarter pole, bid four wide between runners straightening out for home, poked his head in front by the eighth pole, switched leads late and found just a touch more to safely hold on for the win at the wire. VOICE FROM ABOVE was bumped between horses soon after the break, stalked near the rear in the early going, improved slightly outside by the half, was scrubbed on three wide midway around the turn starting to pick up the bit circling rivals, loomed five wide outside the engaged duo turning for home, kept fighting until the end, could not get to the winner who had something left late but did finish up to capture the place share in the final few jumps outside. LOGISTICS was away alertly getting the early advantage outside, shook clear from the group down the backside, continued up top but by a diminishing margin on the turn at the quarter pole, was headed outside by a couple of challengers travelling three wide in upper stretch and gave way grudgingly on the rail in the final furlong just getting nabbed late for the runners up share by the outside rival. HOLIDAY WITH AMY broke in at the start, lacked early foot to be at the rear leaving the chute, shared the back end with an outside rival having a half still to run, offered a mild rally three wide outside of horses at the quarter pole, swung out widest in the six path at the top of the lane and finished up evenly to the wire settling on the fringes. TWISTING PISTONS settled in mid-division on the rail, came under a ride making little movement throughout the turn, shifted out to the two path for the drive to the finish line but lacked a rally between foes in the final furlong. VERY SAVVY had a stalking trip outside of runners, shared the rear with an inside foe by the half, lagged behind the group around the oval, moved out four wide for the stretch run and could only manage to pass a weary straggler outside in deep stretch. I HAVE AN IDEA broke a step slow on the start, recovered leaving the chute to press the issue inside early on, chased the loose frontrunner at the half, closed the gap on the leader around the turn but was being passed outside by a couple of rivals at the quarter pole, could not offer a finishing kick at the top of the stretch and folded inside of horses in the last eighth of a mile.
