Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

TOUR THE CITY had the lead on the fence in the beginning stages, relinquished the top spot to the outside foe travelling into the backstretch, waited patiently to uncork his run keeping a close eye on the embattled trio midway on the final turn, shifted out at the quarter pole reaching for more ground, pounced five wide switching leads at the furlong pole and drove past with an impressive late turn of foot to easily win going away at the wire. MAGNA TIME had an awkward beginning trailing on the fence behind the leader at the start, advanced on the first turn sitting in midfield on the rail, shifted to the two path watching the lead three down the backside, closed in three wide making a good rally around foes at the three furlong pole, seized command outside four wide in upper stretch but just could not fend off the overpowering charge by the winner outside in the final sixteenth. HE'S NOT JOKING was stacked four wide arguing on the front end heading into the initial bend, flanked the pacesetter on the outside at the half, took even closer order dueling between horses on the front end with five sixteenths to go, shifted to the three path turning for home but could only finish up mildly to be a distant third behind the top duo who had it to themselves in deep stretch. POSSIBLEMENTE was bumped on the outside on the break, recouped to prompt the pace between rivals going into the first of two turns, took the lead on the rail midway along the backside, continued up top narrowly on the fence through the far turn, was collared outside at the top of the stretch by a couple of runners, had little fight in the late going inside and yielded on the fence by the eighth pole. MOHAYMEN DIAMOND veered in sharply on the break but was quickly corrected, could see the field in the two path on the first turn, still remained at the rear along the backside, offered a mild run three wide outside foes making a brief move at the seven sixteenths pole, dropped back to last by the quarter marker and galloped through the lane unable to factor in the late stages.
