SILENT STRIKE advanced on the rail along the backside to track the frontrunner inside another rival at the half, assumed command on the fence at the five sixteenths pole with the leader drifting out, moved clear three wide turning for home and was kept busy in the last eighth of a mile to comfortably hold sway for the win at the finish line. AINT NO GIRLY GIRL was isolated keeping a close eye on the front three runners going down the backstretch, started to close in on the turn when edging up the fence at the quarter pole, hugged the rail moving into the second position at the top of the lane but could not narrow the margin chasing the winner home in the final furlong. ANGEL DANIELLE pressed the pace inside in the beginning, took back to track the pacesetter outside with a half mile still to run, improved slightly on the turn to be in the hunt four wide outside foes in upper stretch and finished up evenly in the late running to be a clear third at the wire. LOVE TO DREAM travelled near the rear ahead of only the slow starter down the back straight, made no progression just off the fence well behind the lead three around the oval and finished up well enough to be a fringe player with the field strung out in the stretch drive. CUPIDS BEST ARROW had an awkward start, recovered quickly to have a head in front on the outside three deep going into the backstretch, relinquished the front end getting out midway on the turn, bore out considerably by the quarter pole losing all chance and galloped through the stretch past the finish line. A TOUCH OF SASSY was away slowly spotting the field many lengths down the backside, lost touch with the group around the bend and cantered through the lane crossing the finish line.
