Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MYTH CONCEPTION roused to the front to chase the leader to the top of the stretch then drove past and was kept to task for the win. FULLY FUNDED was hustled along but had to steady near the half mile marker and fell back, kept on to go three wide in upper stretch to make a late run but lugged in late and it wasn't enough. TWISTED STEEL shot away and chased the pace to the eighth pole, made a rail bid but lacked the late kick needed and was a clear third. TOMMY KAT sped to a clear lead to the top of the stretch but was collared at the eighth pole and tired. LIL SLAPPY showed no early speed then saved ground around the turn to show late interest to improve his position. CHIVATO was fractious in the gate prior to the start, then raced near the back to the turn, moved up from three wide but faltered. OUT WITH TY raced near the back while racing wide through the turn but was never a threat.
