Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MYTH CONCEPTION broke sharp, prompted the pace inside around the turn, lost a step leaving the quarter pole, battled back inside SMACKDOWN, re-rallied for the victory. SMACKDOWN broke alertly, contested the pace two wide into the turn, inched clear leaving the quarter pole, under an all-out drive and unable to switch leads through the stretch, chased on late, second best. FINE TUNED chased the pace inside into the turn, bid three wide through the lane, running on the wrong lead, finished willingly for the show. THE KWEEN'S KING stumbled at the start, advanced inside around the turn, worked off the rail forged between rivals into the lane, running on the wrong lead, desperately held on to round out the super. HIGH SPARK slow start, pressed between runners into the turn, five wide through the lane, had no late kick. DEPOSIT INSURANCE slow into stride, roused off the pace five wide around the turn, bid seven wide upper, never fired late. NADA YADA YADA pressed four wide around the turn, bid six deep into the lane, weakened final stages. KNOCK'EM OUT JERRY chased the pace three wide around the turn, under pressure leaving the quarter pole, faltered through the stretch.
