SHOWS PROMISE stalked the early pace from outside, dropped back a bit into the turn, was encouraged past the five-sixteenths, swung out leaving the turn, drove past late while drifting in. NEVER SURRENDER got away alertly, set the pace well off the rail, was headed leaving the turn, fought back in late stretch but was too little too late. PRINCE MARKING broke awkwardly and was slow to gather, made a steady advance outside heading to the turn, ranged up alongside the leader drawing even at the quarter, obtained a narrow advantage into upper stretch, could not sustain the effort and flattened out.
