AMAZING MUSIC moved forward inside but off the rail, took a narrow lead approaching the four- and one-half, shook clear leaving the turn while drifting about six deep into upper stretch, was kept to task and held. MASTER CHIEF MIKE settled mid-pack shifting in bit racing inside a rival but still removed from the fence, gained steadily and slowly inside the winner in the stretch but was not enough while clearly second best. STREET ROCKY Q pressed from between runners, lost ground on the winner leaving the turn, kept on in the lane and secured show honors. FINAL TRIAL raced at the back off the rail but inside a foe into the turn, kept on and gained mildly in the stretch. WINTER FINISHES was outside at the rear, moved out further late on the turn coming into upper stretch nine to ten deep, was never near enough to threaten. KINO KICKS had the early lead for a furlong and some extra then continued to chase up close from outside, drifted out numerous paths past the quarter pole, dropped back and faded. TACOS AND TEQUILA chased from outside mid-pack, steadily retreated.
