SPEED BUMP BOB was away well, pressed the pace to the outside of AARON WHO down the backstretch, took sole possession of the lead past the three-furlong pole, then opened up in the stretch to win going away. THRUTHESTORM backed off the early pace, went wide through the turn and even wider into the stretch, but put in a grinding rally to move into second place. BRAYBRAY tracked off the pace in the second flight, moved up on the turn and chased the eventual winner into the stretch, but weakened in the late stages. I'MAGAMBLER went to the outside, raced in the four-to-five path to the stretch, and finished evenly. DAUX raced at the back of the main pack, then was unable to generate a late bid. DADDY WHAT IF showed little and trailed far back throughout. AARON WHO pressed the pace to the turn, then tired badly.
