MCDUDE vied between foes on the early pace, went to a solo lead after passing the quarter pole, and drew clear in the stretch. FIRE BREATHER took back from the pace battle, came back on midway through the turn, swung four-wide into the stretch, and finished up well to gain the place. REMEMBER BIG JIM was not asked for speed and settled near the back after the start, advanced through the turn to reach contention near the quarter pole, then stayed on well to take the minor award. OCELOT chased four-wide, came out even wider into the stretch, but flattened out. NEIMAN pushed the pace from the inside, was in second position turning into the stretch, but weakened late and dropped off the board. ALBERTUS contested the pace three-wide, dropped out near the quarter pole, and was outfinished through the drive. DAGGER RANCH chased from the back, then dropped further back on the turn and was never a threat.
