STANDOUTSENSATION established a forward position early, raced in the three path on the first turn, prompted the pace on the outside, turned up the pressure on the leader while in the two path on the far turn, took the advantage just inside the three-eighths pole, shook clear in the three path into the stretch, responded well under two taps of a right-handed crop while extending the lead in the vicinity of the furlong marker and maintained a safe advantage while kept to the task with the rider flagging the right-handed crop. RUTH bumped with a rival at the start, saved ground on the first turn, settled off the pace, was asked while inside to the two path on the far turn, turned into upper stretch under a drive, kept on willingly in the final furlong and earned the place. INDY LABEL dropped from the four path to the two path early on the first turn, was rated at the back, steadied briefly near the seven-sixteenths pole, shifted from the two path to the four path while roused shortly thereafter, lost ground on the front, turned into the stretch in the five path and gained late to get the show. TIPPLE was hustled to the front, showed the way on the inside, was asked on the far turn, lost the lead to the winner just inside the three-eighths pole, dropped back into the stretch and tired. CENTRAL AVENUE dropped from the five path to the four path early on the first turn, tracked the pace on the outside, came under urging late on the backstretch, chased in the three path on the far turn, was driven into the stretch in the four path and weakened.
