Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

TWOFEXUSNEXUS tracked three wide, always travling well, launched a bid for the lead approaching the three-furlong pole, dueled briefly with BILLY BOWLEGS, then pulled clear and won going away. BILLY BOWLEGS hustled to the front and opened up by a length or two early, did not get much pressure early on, tried to fight back when TWOFEXUSNEXUS bid near the quarter pole but found that rival too much, kept on and held second despite getting tired in the late stages. FREDDIE BY A NOSE settled off pace three to four wide, launched a mild bid from the three furlong pole, produced a grinding finish, but was good enough to gain the third spot. GORDITO HERMOSO ceded the lead but was always close up inside, bid three-wide into the stretch but was outfinished. GATSBY'S FORTUNE raced close up behind the lone pacesetter, started to lose ground mid-way on the turn, and went evenly through the stretch. RAYDEN AND REMI chased, came under a ride on the turn, then lacked a finish. JOSEPH H moved up after a slow start four to five wide to press the pace into the turn, came under heavy pressure near the quarter pole, then faltered in the stretch. SUMMERTIME PEPPERS away well, settled inside mid-pack, then tired in the stretch. APRIORITY AVENGER outrun despite being under a ride from the start, never factored. THE RIDER OF #2 SUMMERTIME PEPPERS LODGED AN OBJECTION AGAINST #1 BILLY BOWLEGS ALLEGING INTERFERENCE ON THE FIRST TURN. AFTER A REWIEW THE OBJECTION WAS DISALLOWED AND THE ORIGINAL FINISH WAS MADE OFFICIAL.
