Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

LOU THE BODY stalked four to three wide to turn, bid to upper stretch then dueled SECRET EMPIRE to the final sixteenth, wore down that game foe late and edged away to prevail. SECRET EMPIRE hustled, set pressured pace from the inside to the quarter pole, met bid of LOU THE BODY to upper stretch, dueled to the final sixteenth and grudgingly gave way late, while well clear of the rest for second. SWASHBUCKLE settled, angled widest upper stretch, was no match for the top pair, ran on and got up for third. HIGH STRIKE pressed the pace three then two wide, lost position nearing the quarter marker, weakened in the stretch and lost third. SHARPAZANO vied for the early lead, chased from the inside into the turn, faded. NOT GUILTY tracked between foes early on, chased four wide into the turn, gave way stretch.
