Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

CORONA CAMPIONE was sent from the break, made all the running, and was drawing away in the final furlong. DADOO was the trailer to the turn, then produced a bold rally in the stretch to get up for second. DOUBLE AIRO tracked close up two-wide, was the only entrant to make a run at the leader approaching the quarter pole, was unable to close the gap, weakened in mid-stretch, and was passed for the place. ARROGANTE outpaced early, made a three-wide bid on the turn, finished with some interest but was unable to threaten in the late stages. MORE RANSOM raced close up down the backstretch, then was getting outpaced through the turn, was kept to task, but lacked the needed response. WARRIOR'S MISS was sent forward after a bit of a tardy start, chased inside to the turn, then weakened after passing the three-furlong pole and had little left for the stretch run. LADY AHAVA settled mid-pack, struggled to keep up through the turn, retreated, and was outrun in the stretch. LITTLE COCOA BEAN showed little speed from the break and was last early, made a nice three-wide move through the turn to reach third position by the quarter pole, then tired in upper stretch.
