UNCLE ARLYS broke quite sharply to take take command, came under pressure around the half and vied between rivals in the far turn, dueled with MCCRAKENS GHOST in the stretch, began to edge clear in the final sixteenth while holding off a late rally by outside foe. SURFSIDE MOON opted to race in the middle of the pack in the two path, tipped out four wide entering the stretch, found a late surge of energy in the final sixteenth but needed more. MCCRAKENS GHOST sat not too far behind the pace, moved up to vie for command along the inside of the far turn, continued to duel with the leader in the stretch until yielding in the final sixteenth. MALIBU WARRIOR stalked the pace three wide after the first turn, moved up to challenge the pace at the half and around the far turn but gave way at the quarter, showed a mild rally late. CODY PASS trailed through the first turn, steadily advanced along the backstretch, saved ground in the second turn, flattened out in the stretch. MARY'S REWARD tracked the early pace three lengths deep, tipped out entering the stretch to overtake POCKET SAND in the final furlong and kicked clear. POCKET SAND broke swiftly to take the early lead, weakened in the final furlong to give way to MARY'S REWARD, clearly second best. DESI'S REWARD took a small hop at the start, moved up to stalk the pace three wide after the first turn, backed off in the far turn, made no more progress in the stretch. NEVER SO LUCKY (IRE) raced off the pace, made no impact. MIKEY'S JEWEL was the distant trailer throughout, no factor.
