EMPIRE OF GLORY was rated along and raced on through the inside, then moved up through the turn and rallied down the lane to prove best. KNICK'S HONOR vied early on from the inside and shifted back a bit while angling outwards on the backside, then came four to five wide through the turn and made a bid but was second best. MEGACLES vied early for the lead in the two path between rivals and rated back on the backside, then came three wide on the turn and shifted out five wide into the upper and drifted late but was no match for the top two. VINO SOLO was last away and settled far off the pace coming two to four wide through the first turn, then shifted up nearing the turn and came five wide, swung out widest into the upper and improved well late. LIVE STREAM was fractious in the gate and saved ground early on, then came two wide through the turn and angled out about seven wide at the quarter pole but needed more. MICANOPY settled back in the two path early and came three wide through the turn, then angled five wide into the upper and mildly improved. PERFECT GAMBLE settled early in the two to three path through the first and came four wide through the turn, then swung out eight wide into the upper but was no factor. GIDEON was bumped at the start and bumped hard mid-way through the chute, then settled on the inside and came three wide off the bend but had no kick. DISTINCT broke outwards and bumped with a rival twice before leaving the chute then shifted to the outside while being keen, then came four to three wide into the first and vied for the lead, took command along the backstretch then tired out in the upper.
