Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BREEZERO was content to draft behind the pacesetter down the backside, waited while inside another on the turn for the cue to go moving comfortably, shifted out in the two path having clear run at the top of the lane, powered past taking control at the furlong marker and impressively increased the winning margin when crossing the finish line. HARD TO CAPTURE was allowed to gather herself trailing on the fence along the backstretch, shifted out at the three eighths pole lengthening stride, passed a rival outside at the five sixteenths pole commencing a rally, swung out five wide full of run at the top of the lane and charged past all rivals except the winner who was long gone through the stretch and just got up for the place share right at the finish line. CRAFTY OAKS broke in on the start, had an inside trip with another foe in the third tier in the early stages, duelled on the rail in upper stretch for the show money award and finished up strongly battling in the two path between horses in the final furlong actually just missing the late nod for the runners up share at the wire. SUMMER SNOW was hustled from the outer post to clear up top on the rail by the half, freewheeled on the lead unopposed around the turn, offered no resistance inside when the winner swept past at the furlong pole and wilted in the final seventy yards losing a couple of positions late to settle on fringes in the end. YA MAR was brushed outside on the break, had a tracking role outside down the backside, continued keeping a close eye on the frontrunner while having the eventual winner inside through the running around the bend, shifted out three wide turning for home under right-handed encouragement but offering little response in upper stretch and flattened out between horses in the three path in the final sixteenth of a mile. MI TORMENTA travelled near the rear ahead of only one rival along the backside, saved ground co-trailed inside throughout the bend and finished up with interest inside rivals in the final furlong, could not gain any positions in deep stretch but did close the gap smartly in the late running trying to garner a minor placing. PORSHAS RUN settled on the outside having a stalking position in the third flight, was asked for more through the turn offering little response and emptied out four wide midway down the stretch.
