PHILIP BANKS got away well and set the early tempo from just off the rail, was headed by an outside rival at the seven-sixteenths, retook the lead a furlong later, began edging away willingly once in upper stretch, was shaken up past the eighth pole, drew off under mild hand urging while much the best. GOLDEN TRUTH shifted in two to three wide mid-pack, came out five wide at the top of the stretch, chased the winner home in vain but was clearly second best. TIME PASSES settled last but one, advanced between foes in mid- to late-stretch to secure show honors while no threat to the top pair. GONE HUNTING switched outside a foe into the turn, went three to four wide on that bend outside mid-division, came into upper stretch five deep, ran on but needed more. CHASING MEMORIES advanced three to four wide into and early on the turn, bid at the seven-sixteenths taking a brief narrow lead, faltered in upper stretch and faded. POLITICAL WARFARE was under strong urging from the start, chased inside, cornered slightly awkwardly along the rail past the five-eighths, continued under urging the inside pursuit, failed to rally. CAT'S FURY unhurriedly brought up the rear, dropped back further into the turn, was never a threat.
