Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

PARAMOUNT PRINCE was hustled at the start getting a clear advantage on the rail into the first turn, settled into a good rhythm dictating a modest pace while quickening the tempo slightly down the backside at the half, opened up at the five sixteenths pole disposing of a brief challenge from an outside rival early into the far turn, moved away with ease at the quarter pole and won under only a hand ride through to the finish line. LOOSE WIRE had the rail stalking on the first turn, watched the front two runners while nestled on the fence down the backside, tried to make a rally with the frontrunner getting away at the five sixteenths pole, could not match strides with the leader who had plenty left for the drive at the top of the lane and coasted in to be second best behind the overpowering winner. DRESDEN ROW shifted off the fence to track the lone speed outside early on, was content to gallop along just outside watching the pacesetter while offering little pressure down the backstretch, was scrubbed on for run at the three furlong pole but was quickly repelled by the winner midway on the last turn, faded by the quarter pole unable to go with then front pair at the top of the stretch and finished up on the rail to be a distant third in the end. LAC MACAZA was at the back three wide with the field compact heading into the first turn, could see the field still well in range at the half, could not quicken with runners at the midpoint of the final turn and while four wide in the lane could not get into contention, galloping home across the wire.
