Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

DRAKE DRIVE hopped slightly on the break, poked his head in front on the inside down the backstretch , edged away for a clear advantage on the turn with a quarter mile to go, scraped paint spurring away from his closest pursuers in mid-stretch and kept to the task in the final furlong to just prevail at the wire for the front end win. PRINCE ALMASTY was away slowly at the break to stalk on the rail down the backside, shifted out at the five sixteenths pole starting to come with a rally, angled five wide between rivals at the top of the lane and was full of run in the final furlong closing in sharply but was denied for the victory, ending up just shy of the winner outside at the finish line. CONN SMYTHE (GB) was brushed on the inside on the start, settled outside of runners in midfield along the backside, moved in through the turn narrowing the margin smartly by the quarter pole, posed the main threat three wide between foes in upper stretch, dueled up top with a sixteenth of a mile remaining but was no match for the front two runners in deep stretch while easily holding for the third place share in the end. SILENT KNIGHT broke outwards on the start, was void of early foot trailing in the early going, lagged well behind the group through the turn, swung out widest in the six path at the top of the stretch and finished up mildly to pass a couple of weary foes down the lane. SWITZLER JAMMIN contested the pace outside down the backstretch, was scrubbed on for more but could not match strides with the winner by the quarter pole, chased in vain two wide in upper stretch and faltered on the fence by the sixteenth pole. LIVININTHEFASTLANE vied between runners in the beginning, settled inside another rivals keeping a close eye on the engaged duo at the half, was asked for run midturn but could not gain on the lead pair around the bend, had little left for the drive and folded on the fence at the furlong marker.
